Andrea Simon und Simon Etter

Homoeopathy is becoming increasingly important in the public consciousness and private lives of many people. Photographer Andreas J. Etter and choreographer Andrea Simon, in their latest collaboration “Rendezvous with Rosa”, provide a unique insight into the world of this healing art.

Rendezvous with Rosa

In “Rendezvous with Rosa” 17 different homeopathic remedies unfold their magic in a presentation of 150 photographs and stylistically diverse essays. Wonderful professional dancers and gifted child dancers represent the homeopathic remedies, their relation to others and their characteristic approach to relationships, using unique choreographic interpretations. As was also the case in the previous volume “Sepia tanzt allein”, this work incorporates a variety of aspects of dance and cultural history, so that every reader will find their own personal rendezvous.
